Program / Celebration Report

Name of the Program Conducted: Innovation and Entrepreneurship Program for community

Relevant Occasion: On August 26, 2023, the Women's Development Cell of Dadasaheb Balpande College of Pharmacy (DBCOP), Unnat Bharat Abhiyan, and NSS organized a program to raise awareness of "Innovation and Entrepreneurship Program for the Community." Women from nearby villages like Pipla, Velahari, and Besa attended the event, which was held on the college's ground.

A session on entrepreneurship awareness was given by Mrs. Kalyani Jaipurkar, a socialist who works for the advancement of ruler women. She discussed government programs like Women's Economic Empowerment, "SEWA Bharat," and Udyogini for community women. Her talk aimed to promote entrepreneurship, foster positive attitudes towards this innovation in entrepreneurship and raise awareness about innovation and entrepreneurship for the financial development of ruler women.

The program began with the lighting of the lamp, which chief guest and DBCOP Principal Dr. Ujwala Mahajan performed. This gesture was intended to express gratitude and recognition for the hard work and contributions made by women in various fields.

There was also a demonstration of skill development and techniques for new small startups, in which community members demonstrated entrepreneurship and innovation tips and tricks to become self-sustainable in various situations.

Overall, the "Innovation and Entrepreneurship Program for Community at DBCOP" was a successful event that brought together women from various backgrounds to develop skills and confidence for future societal contributions. The event emphasized the importance of community entrepreneurship and provided an opportunity for the women to demonstrate their innovative skills.
